Important Information for Students

Please read the below given information carefully before signing the application form. Students may contact ASOC for any further information or email us at apply@asoc.edu.au. It is advisable to read Student's handbook for detailed information available on ASOC's website www.asoc.edu.au.

Course Monitoring and Attendance Policy

Australia School of Commerce has a Course Monitoring and Attendance Policy which states that the students are required to maintain satisfactory course progress throughout the course. Students are also required to attend their classes and maintain 80% of attendance throughout the course. Low attendance implies that students might not be able to complete their course on time and this will lead to students breaching their visa conditions. Hence, students are required to attend classes in accordance with course timetables to make satisfactory course progress. ASOC is required to report students on the basis of unsatisfactory course progress for two consecutive study period to the Department of Home Affairs (DHA) via PRISMS.

Students enrolled in SIT (Commercial Cookery, Kitchen and Hospitality Management) courses must attend all kitchen practical to fully develop their culinary skills. Student's kitchen attendance will be monitored closely, and student missing kitchen's practical classes will be treated on a case-by-case basis. Student missing more than one kitchen practical class will not be allowed to sit in re-assessment but will be required to repeat the units as it will not be possible for students to develop the required skills without attending kitchen practical classes.

Satisfactory course Progress: where a student can meet course progress requirements for a study period as identified in the Training and Assessment Strategy for each course. Satisfactory course progress is defined as successfully completing or demonstrating competency in at least 50% of the units in the study period.

Note: Students will not be reported on the basis of attendance. However, low attendance may lead to unsatisfactory course progress which can lead to you being reported to the DHA.

If an overseas student is not attending scheduled classes, but is making satisfactory progress in their course, then the course duration set may not be suitable for that student—because this may mean that they already have the skills, knowledge and experience to progress in their course without receiving structured training.

ASOC will reduce the duration of the course to the minimum duration required, given the student's existing skills and knowledge, while maintaining a minimum of 20 scheduled course contact hours per week.

Refer to Course Monitoring and Attendance Policy available on website or refer to Student's handbook available on website.

Fee Payment
